

The U.S. Immigration System

2017 Nonimmigrant Admissions (I-94/I-94W Only)

Nonimmigrants are foreign nationals granted temporary admission to the United States. Some examples of nonimmigrant admission categories are tourists, business travelers, students, temporary workers, and diplomatic and international organization staff. This graphic provides data for nonimmigrants who received I-94 and I-94W (Visa Waiver) forms in Fiscal Year 2017; these forms are issued to most types of nonimmigrants with the exceptions of Canadian tourists and business travelers and Mexicans with border crossing cards.

77,643,267

admissions to the United States were recorded using Form I-94 or I-94W. An I-94/I-94W form documents the Arrival-Departure Record of particular aliens.

REGION OF CITIZENSHIP

Sources of I-94/I-94W admissions:

53.2% of Students & Exchange Visitor admissions were citizens of countries in Asia.

I-94/I-94W BY CLASS OF ADMISSION

VISA WAIVERS (I-94W)

23,637,046

admissions to the United States occurred under the Visa Waiver Program.

The Visa Waiver Program allows nationals of designated countries to travel to the United States as tourists or business travelers without a visa for a period not to exceed 90 days.

MONTH OF ARRIVAL

